^{*} As a result of the sale of a business, the operating results and cash flows from the discontinued operation have been reclassified in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets".

^{*} The Company bases the forecast estimates for March 31, 2007 above upon information currently available to management, which involves risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected.

Policies

1. Basic Management

The Ricoh Group intends to be the company that gains most from the 21st century. Based on this group vision, we will continue to contribute both to productivity improvement and also to knowledge creation for individuals working anytime, anywhere. This approach will enable us to gain the utmost trust of our customers and continue to grow and develop our business. Accordingly, our proactive approach encompasses not only products and services for traditional office setups, but also customers working in a broadband environment. Our 15th medium-term management plan - which extends from April 2005 to March 2008 - features the following five basic management policies:

- 1. Foster a "Vital and motivated culture" with high objectives and achieve them;
- 2. Aim at "World No.1manufacturer" through unique, competitive technology with leading-edge technologies;
- 3. Provide customers with "Sensitivity to people's needs", "Sensitivity to the earth" and "Simplify knowledge creation";
- 4. Invest smartly in growth areas and expand business foundation; and
- 5. Innovate group management and maximize capital efficiency.

2. Medium-Term Management Strategies

In terms of Office Solutions segment – our core competence – we in the Ricoh Group have made every possible effort since the inception of our 13th medium-term management plan to move beyond the manufacture and retail of equipment such as copiers and printers so that we may overhaul our operational structure, thus enabling us to support our customers in their efforts to improve or enhance productivity through our offering.

In the 14th medium-term management plan, we defined our principal strategy as "the realization of TDV (i.e., total document volume), thereby broadening our revenue and earning framework," as we recognize that efficient and effective Input/Output (I/O), storage, and searching of TDV, which includes printed material in addition to photocopies, will become a pressing issue for our customers.

In the 15th medium-term management plan, we set the highest target in the history. While there are no changes to the direction of business structure reform and principal strategy of the Ricoh Group in the 15th medium-term management plan, we will aim to increase our corporate value by more than ever addressing issues from the customers' standpoint and continuing to provide the high values that meets customers' expectations.

In the Office Solutions segment, in particular, we are confident that we can further solidify our business foundation by taking utmost advantage of the abilities and strengths of the Ricoh Group, such as the comprehensive product line, customer rapport through sales and service, ability to provide solutions, global operations, image processing technology, and image processing and merging technology, to respond to the diverse needs of even greater range of customers.

In the Office Solutions segment, we have identified "printing" as a certain area that presents an outstanding opportunity for growth. Consequently, we will shift a higher portion of our business resources to this area. Namely, we will continue to advance printing solutions such as BC (black-color) conversion and TCO (total cost of ownership) reduction solutions in the office, enter the high-end production printing market, boost low-end color laser printers and further promote gel jet printers, in order to expand Ricoh's business domain and size. Furthermore, we will revamp our sales system solutions and solutions platform to capture a greater share of major customers, particularly major global accounts.

On the other hand, we will allocate greater business resources to promising businesses in the Industrial Products. In addition, we will seek for greater business shares of both the Office Solutions and the Industrial Products in emerging markets.

As it is a key to have the technological advantage in the market for realizing customer value, we will continue our aggressive R&D activities to boost our technological capabilities.

3. Challenges

As customers' needs become ever more diverse, customers are no longer satisfied with purchasing products or receiving ordinary services. The competition has also intensified in the transition to color and in the solutions marketing. In order for the Ricoh Group to achieve growth and development with a focus on these growth areas, it is essential that we boost our corporate competitiveness by creating new value for customers and improving managerial efficiency.

In creating customer value, it is important that we forecast customers' needs and improve our both products and services to meet their needs. To this end, we will increase the scope of CS (Customer Satisfaction) management, in which we aggressively cultivate new values by more than ever placing ourselves in the shoes of our customers. We will also continue to boost our technological ability to materialize products and services that provide new values.

Our effort will also continue to improve the efficiency of corporate management to enhance our profitability. Structural reform will streamline operational processes and improve the earnings from each project. Furthermore, we will more carefully select projects and concentrate resources to the selected projects to improve managerial efficiency.

The profit generated from such activities will be aggressively allocated to investments in growth areas and technologies to further increase profits and raise corporate value.

4. Dividend Policy

Ricoh endeavors to ensure that policies are regularly updated to take the dividend payout ratio into consideration in the payment of dividends, while at the same time increasing retained earnings for the enhancement of corporate structure and the new business generation. Furthermore, these retained earnings will be used both in the reinforcement of core businesses and for investment in new fields with both medium-term and long-term perspectives.

5. Concept and Policy of Reducing the Trading Unit

Ricoh plans to keep investment patterns and shareholder composition under close scrutiny, and we will consider taking the appropriate steps to alter the minimum investment lot if so required. By reducing the minimum number of shares required to invest in the company, Ricoh believes that a broader range of investors can be attracted to equity markets, while at the same time, the liquidity of this company's shares may be enhanced. Nevertheless, many investors already trade in Ricoh's shares, and for this reason, management has concluded that there is no immediate need for reduction of the minimum investment lots.

Furthermore, we intend to pay attention to the condition of business partners and of shareholder makeup as we carefully study both the necessity and the timing of implementation of these measures.

7. Significant Accounting Policies (Consolidated)

1. Change relating to the scale of consolidation and the application of the equity method from April 1, 2006 to September 30, 2006.

Consolidated subsidiaries:

- 1 Addition
- 8 Removals

Companies accounted for by the equity method:

4 Removals

2. Consolidated Accounting Policies (Summary)

(1) Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Ricoh and its consolidated subsidiaries. Investments in 20% to 50% owned companies when the company has the ability to exercise significant influence are accounted for on the equity basis. All significant inter-company balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

(2) Securities

In conformity with SFAS No.115, securities are mainly classified as available-for-sale securities. Available-for-sale securities are reported at fair value with unrealized gains and losses, net of related taxes, excluded from earnings and reported in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss).

The cost of the securities sold is computed based on the average cost of each security held at the time of sale.

(3) Inventories

Inventories are mainly stated at the lower of average cost or market. Inventory costs include raw materials, labor and manufacturing overheads.

(4) Plant and Equipment

Depreciation of plant and equipment is computed principally by using the declining-balance method over the estimated useful lives. Most of the foreign subsidiaries have adopted the straight-line method for computing depreciation. Certain leased buildings, machinery and equipment are accounted for as capital leases in conformity with SFAS No.13, "Accounting for Leases."

(5) Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets

In conformity with SFAS No.142, Goodwill and intangible asset determined to have an indefinite useful life are not amortized. SFAS No.142 requires annual impairment testing thereof.

(6) Pension and Retirement Allowances Plans

The measurement of pension costs and liabilities is determined in accordance with SFAS No.87, "Employers' Accounting for Pensions." Under SFAS 87, changes in the amount of either the projected benefit obligation or plan assets resulting from actual results different from that assumed and from changes in assumptions can result in gains and losses not yet recognized in the consolidated financial statements. Amortization of an unrecognized net gain or loss is included as a component of the net periodic benefit plan cost for a year if, as of the beginning of the year, that unrecognized net gain or loss exceeds 10 percent of the greater of (1) the projected benefit obligation or (2) the fair value of that plan's assets. In such case, the amount of amortization recognized is the resulting excess divided by the average remaining service period of active employees expected to receive benefits under the plan. The expected long-term rate of return on plan assets used for pension accounting is determined based on the historical long-term rate of return on plan assets. The discount rate is determined based on the rates of return of high-quality fixed-income investments currently available and expected to be available during the period to maturity of the pension benefits.

(7) Use of Estimates

Management of the Company has made a number of estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, including impairment losses of long-lived assets and the disclosures of fair value of financial instruments and contingent assets and liabilities, to prepare these financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Significant Accounting Policies (Non-consolidated)

1. Accounting policy for assets

- (1) Inventories are stated at the lower of average cost.
- (2) Securities
 - i Securities of subsidiaries and affiliates are stated at moving average cost.
 - ii Other securities:

Marketable securities are marked to market based on the market price at the end of the term and other factors (accounting for all valuation differences with the full net assets injection method; the cost of securities sold is valued at moving average cost.)

Non-marketable securities are stated at cost based on the moving average method.

(3) Derivatives are stated at market value.

2. Depreciation of fixed assets

(1) Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are depreciated using the declining balance method.

For buildings (excluding fixtures) secured on and after April 1, 1998, however, Ricoh uses straight-line depreciation.

The range of the estimated useful life regarding principal tangible fixed assets are follows.

Buildings: from 5 years to 50 years

Machinery and equipment: from 2 years to 12 years

(2) Intangible fixed assets

Ricoh uses straight-line depreciation for intangible fixed assets.

With software for sale in the marketplace, however, the Company records the larger of a depreciation based on projected sales profits or a uniform depreciation based on a projected effective sales period for the balance. The initially projected effective sale term is three years. With software for internal use, the company uses straight-line depreciation on a usable period of five years.

3. Basis for provision of reserves

(1) Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

The allowance for doubtful accounts is provided to cover possible losses from bad debts and represents possible individual doubtful accounts based on historical default rates and the potential for irrecoverableness.

(2) Reserve for Accrued Bonuses

The reserve for accrued bonuses is provided by estimating the amount of bonuses payable to employees for the current financial year under our corporate rules for calculating such bonus payment.

(3) Reserve for Accrued Directors' Bonuses

The reserve for accrued bonuses is provided by estimating the amount of bonuses payable to Directors for the current half of financial year .

(4) Warranty reserve

To cover product after-sales service expenses, the Company calculates the product warranty reserve based on projected service costs during warranty terms.

(5) Reserve for Retirement Benefit Obligations

To cover projected employee benefits, the Company records the estimated obligations at the end of current fiscal half year based on projected year-end benefit obligations and plan assets. The company uses straight-line depreciation for actuarial gains or losses and for prior service costs over averaged remaining employment term. (15years)

(6) Reserve for Directors' Retirement Allowances

At the half year-end, Ricoh calculates the amounts required under internal rules to pay directors retirement allowances.

4. Leasing

Finance leases for which ownership does not transfer to lessees are accounted for as operating leases.

5. Hedge accounting

(1) Hedge Accounting Methods

Ricoh accounts for hedges at market value. With currency swaps, however, the Company hedges by assigning transactions that meet assignment requirements.

(2) Hedging Instruments and Targets

There is no Hedging Instrument or Hedging Target at the end of current fiscal half year.

(3) Hedging policies

In keeping with its internal Market Risk Management Rules, Ricoh uses derivatives to manage the exposure of its assets and liabilities to market fluctuations.

(4) Hedge Effectiveness

Ricoh assesses the effectiveness of hedges by analyzing the ratios of the total market fluctuations of hedged targets and instruments.

6. Consumption taxes

Consumption taxes are excluded from revenues and expenses. The refundable consumption tax at the end of the first half of the year is included in "Other current assets", after offsetting suspense payments and receipt of consumption taxes and etc.

Effective April 1, 2006, Ricoh adopted ASBJ statement No.4 "Accounting Standard for Directors' Bonuses" issued by the Accounting Standards Board of Japan on November 29, 2005.
